CITCON Australia/New Zealand 2009 Volunteers

Although CITCON comes to you free of charge, it takes a lot of effort to get everything organised. CITCON relies on passionate and dedicated people that volunteer their time and energy.

A hearty "Thank You!" goes to the following people...

Andrew Fletcher

Venue Coordinator/Committee Chair

Andrew is National Quality Manager for SMS Management & Technology - Australia's leading publicly listed management services company. He is responsible for methodology across the organisation and consults on software development practices.

Eric Lefevre-Ardent

Registration Coordinator

A Java consultant by trade, Eric has fallen into the Agile world early 2005 on a Scrum project. That experience had been fantastic and he is aspiring at recreating it elsewhere. Other interests include project automation and getting projects back to a simpler, happier state. Eric has been helping CITCON with registration coordination since 2008.

Erik Petersen

Marketing Coordinator

Coach, Architect, Designer, Project Mgr, Researcher, focused on system testing, tools and system test automation. Visit the links site www.testingspot.net. Watch the Google tech talk, www.tinyurl.com/80-20-rules

Mark Derricutt

Registration Desk

Developer, Hacker, Dreamer, Metal Head, and Podcaster.

Alister Scott

Local Coordinator

Alister is an automated testing specialist with several years experience in software testing in various organizations ranging from Federal Government to private enterprise. He currently works in Brisbane for one of Australia's largest Superannuation funds. Alister is an open source advocate and is actively involved in the Watir (Web Application Testing in Ruby) Project as the Watir Wiki Master. Alister writes a blog titled WatirMelon which is available at watirmelon.wordpress.com.

Racheal Johnson

Social Director/Registration Desk

Racheal recently completed a Dip. of Business Management majoring in Event Management, and volunteered for the CITCON as a way to gain some experience in the corporate sector. She has experience with private events, and is in the process of starting her own Events & Entertainment business called Star Rae Productions.
